

Sociable Sign-Ups

KAWRJ supports Congregation Kol Ami in many ways. The two that are most obvious are:

- Facilitating socials that bring members together through various activities
- Providing scholarships for temple youth to attend URJ camps and NFTY Israel experiences

Sociable Signups are opportunities to participate in memorable events while getting better acquainted with people who have similar interests (social!) and make a donation for CKA's URJ Camps Scholarship Fund.

This year there are seven different get-togethers. Scroll through the parties that are scheduled. Note the date they will be held. Sign up ASAP – you'll see that spaces are limited. If you would like to make a gift of attendance, we'll provide you with a gift card for your guest.

Consider a Hanukkah gift of tickets for High Tea or the Blueberry BBQ, or possibly a birthday or Mother's Day gift of the FEAST dinner with beverage pairings that will be held on Mother's Day weekend. Sign up online at <http://tinyurl.com/SocialableSignups>.

Books and Bagels

Books and Bagels

Sunday, November 4, 10:15 a.m.

Once again, KAWRJ will team up with the Men's Club to have breakfast and discuss books. Come hear about some really great books, and help us decide which book we will read as a whole congregation. Did we mention there would be some delicious food?

HANUKKAH & HOLIDAY BAZAAR

Sunday, November 4, 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

in the CKA Social Hall

Enjoy yummy matzo ball soup, bagels & schmear, and baked goods while you shop these vendors:

- ✧ CKA's Judaica Shop: Hanukkah gifts, supplies, and Judaica for all seasons
- ✧ January 5th Designs: Cards
- ✧ Beadtography: Jewelry and braille art
- ✧ Herb's Daughter: Soaps
- ✧ Pinless Pin: Jewelry and other goodies

Come to shop, talk about books at Books and Bagels
...and then shop some more!

Join us Saturday, November 17 at 7:00 for:

End Shabbat with us and then watch RBG, “a revelatory documentary exploring Ruth Bader Ginsburg’s exceptional life and career.” We’ll provide the popcorn and discussion questions. Click here to rsvp. (<http://evite.me/p8VaCm3N5e>)

SAVE THE DATES FOR DECEMBER

Ladies’ Night In

Wednesday, December 5, 6:30 p.m.

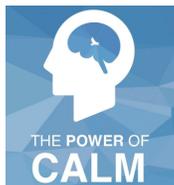

Bring your best “Hanukkah Hit” to a “Ladies Night In.” By “hit” we mean a dish that is always a “hit” with your family and friends (purchased or homemade). We’ll be starting at 6:30 p.m. at Allison Wetchler’s house (13905 NE 7th Circle, Vancouver).

Please RSVP (<http://evite.me/jvfs8tJ5z5>) so we know how many to plan for.

Sunday Connections and Conversations: Calming Ourselves and Others

Sunday, December 16, 10:15 a.m. in the CKA Library

In the midst of all the December hubbub, join us in the library as we hear from a community mediator and learn what mediators do to stay calm in the midst of conflict, and how they help clients in the face of often very emotional and difficult circumstances.

We will also have the opportunity to participate in some mindfulness activities.

Did you know?

Our “Heroes of the Hungry and Homeless Seminar” was a winner of the Eleanor Kretzer Kavod Award “recognizing and honoring innovative programming projects and significant contributions to social action exemplifying the spirit of tikkun olam.”

These special awards are presented biennially at the Pacific District Convention to the sisterhoods whose projects and programs best meet the rigorous selection criteria.

Get to know one of our newer members:

Amy Wolf

- Amy moved to Vancouver from Maryland this summer
- She has three children (2 away in college, and Jesse who is in 9th grade at Skyview)
- Her husband, Mark, works for Kyocera
- Amy is a CPA working remotely for her Maryland firm
- She enjoys the outdoors and music with her family
- Amy is interested in getting to know members of CKA, and making new friends